Taunton, MA . . . Today Mayor Shaunna O’Connell announced that the VaxBus will be arriving in Taunton on Monday, August 2nd for 1st & 2nd vaccine doses.

The VaxBus will be offering both the Johnson & Johnson and Pfizer vaccines to people ages 12+. You do not have to be a Taunton resident—the mobile clinic is open to everyone.

The bus will be at Lenox Green, 45 Mason Street, from 12:00pm to 3:00pm. It will then move to Taunton High School, 50 Williams Street, it will be there from 4:00pm to 7:00pm.

If you are between the ages of 12 and 17, you will need a signed waiver from your parent or guardian, but you do not need an adult present with you.
